

Economics department profile

Shri Annadaneshwar College was introduced economics subject in 1966 it have great history with affiliation of Karnataka university ,Dharawad. Department is enriched by two lecturers including one regular staff member. students need based we started with agricultural economics offering many more subjects for B.A &B.com course like micro economics managerial economics macro economics monetary economics international economics public economics development economics Indian economy and industrial economics . the department is always tries to updates students with current scenario of Indian economic system