Sub: Successful Completion of the Short-term Certificate Course on Spoken English for Degree Students of Our College

I am pleased to inform you that the Department of English at our college conducted a certificate course on Spoken English from September 24, 2019, to November 8, 2019. The course spanned 30 hours, and 30 students attended it regularly, finding it highly beneficial for their future careers. I am excited to report that 81% of the students who participated in the course provided feedback, rating it as "excellent." This overwhelmingly positive response underscores the course's effectiveness in improving students' spoken English skills.

The course aimed to enhance students' communication abilities, focusing on practical spoken English for daily life and professional interactions. It covered various aspects of spoken English, including vocabulary, pronunciation, and conversational skills.

The course not only helped students gain confidence in their English communication but also provided them with a valuable skill set that will be advantageous in their academic and professional pursuits.

The Short-term Certificate Course on Spoken English has been a resounding success, as evidenced by the overwhelmingly positive feedback from our students. We are committed to continuing to provide quality education and valuable skills to our students.

Thank you for your support in making this course a success.

Sincerely,

Prof. Sandeepkumar B.

Report on short term Certificate Course on 'Spoken English'
For the Academic Year 2019 – 20

The Short Term Certificate Course on Spoken English, conducted from September 24, 2019, to November 8, 2019, under the guidance of Course Coordinator Prof. Sandeepkumar B., proved to be a remarkable journey in enhancing the English communication skills of B.A. I Semester students. This report offers a qualitative overview of the course, its advantages, benefits, and related aspects, shedding light on the positive impact it had on the participating students.

The primary objective of the course was to improve students' communication skills in English. By the end of the program, students exhibited increased confidence in expressing themselves fluently and effectively. The course content was tailored to prepare students for real-life scenarios, including professional interactions and everyday conversations. This practical approach resonated well with the participants.

Alongside language proficiency, the course emphasized cultural sensitivity and cross-cultural communication, making it valuable in our diverse society. The participatory nature of the course allowed students to overcome inhibitions and become more self-assured in their language skills.

A notable 81% of the students who enrolled in the course rated it as "excellent." This feedback reflects the course's efficacy in meeting the students' expectations and objectives. The remaining participants provided positive feedback, with no adverse comments recorded. To recognize and celebrate the successful completion of the course, certificates were awarded to all participating students. This acknowledgment serves as a testament to their commitment and the valuable skills they acquired during the program.

The Short Term Certificate Course on Spoken English, led by Prof. Sandeepkumar B., proved to be a transformative experience for B.A. I Semester students. It not only improved their language proficiency but also instilled confidence, cultural awareness, and real-world communication skills. The overwhelmingly positive feedback underscores the course's effectiveness and highlights its role in equipping students for future academic and professional endeavours.
